The motion was decided by a yes and no vote and declared lost by the moderator.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The year recently ended has been marked, like others before it, by fine cooperation and efficient effort on the part of the teachers who, under the careful guidance of the watchful superintendent, form our excellent staff of instructors. As one result of the good work done we have the largest group of high school pupils in the history of our town; and a considerably larger group is in prospect next year.

Continued care has been taken to keep the school property in repair, to make needed improvements and to add to the equipment when practicable. A new ceiling has replaced in the North school house, the old one which was badly broken and beginning to fall. This work made necessary further attention to the side walls. The alterations at the Center school house, which have greatly added to the working value of the building, revealed the need of some unexpected repairs upon the structure.

Mr. George E. Blair, who served many years as janitor of the Center school and for a little more than two years as janitor of the special school, has ceased to act in that capacity. He is succeeded by Mr. John J. Fowler.

We urge the people to read carefully the report of the Superintendent of Schools, giving particular attention to what is said about the Special school. This school is little appreciated by many of our people; but it needs and merits warm sympathy from all.

Since the sum raised for the support of schools is relatively large it is conspicuous in the town's budget and attracts attention. There is some danger that this item may loom too large in our thinking of town affairs. We call attention to a few important facts, as follows.

The appropriation made last year for this department was $33,800. The proceeds of certain funds, available for school purposes, amounted to about $700. Thus the total resources were $34,500. The State of Massachusetts makes to our town, on account of various school expenditures, reimbursements in several different items. The total of these allotments to us last year was a little over $8,800. This reduced the net cost of our school work to the sum of $25,000. Thus it turns out that the Town of Carver received last year school service valued in financial terms of $34,500 at an actual cost to the tax payers of $25,000.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

To the School Committee:

It is with pleasure that I submit my ninth annual report.

The past year has been marked by very gratifying progress in the schools. Our record in the Middleborough High School was very creditable, Theron Cole receiving first honor at graduation, thirty per cent of our pupils being on the honor roll and fifty per cent of the seniors winning membership in Pro Merito, the honor society of the class. In the grade tests our standing was also satisfactory.

The only change in the teaching force was in the special class. Mrs. Howell's death in February was a distinct loss, as she gave unstintedly time and strength to the work, undoubtedly hastening her passing by her devotion to her work. Mrs. Hattie G. Griffith filled the position very capably until the end of the year but declined re-election. Mrs. Charlena Walton was elected to the position in September.

The Special School

No school is so little understood by parents and citizens as this school. Many pupils are naturally slow in their mental reactions, and consequently are seriously handicapped in regular grade work. They become discouraged because others go ahead so much faster, lose interest and fall into bad mental habits. In the Special or Individual Class the regular subjects are taken up much more slowly. Each pupil proceeds according to his own rate and methods may vary with every pupil. The work is varied as the pupil's interest in one subject is not of long duration.

We have learned that we cannot increase the subnormal child's capacity for learning, but we can foster his self-respect and encourage him to strengthen desirable traits by allowing him to achieve success every day by doing things according to his ability.

The goal of this school is to develop self-controlled, self-supporting citizenship. To secure this the academic and industrial work is coordinated with health, social adjustment, thrift, ability to stick to a job, and to use leisure time wisely.

Reading is primarily to get thought from the printed page. Oral and written language are taught to help the child to correct careless habits of speech and writing. Arithmetic is limited to simple processes in the fundamentals, the use of money in buying and selling, and problems pertaining to daily life. Mental, physical and oral hygiene are stressed with particular attention to the condition of the skin, hair and mouth, proper diet, sleep, posture, rest and clothing. Hand work is emphasized especially. The girls are taught sewing, cleaning, knitting, and weaving. Other forms include reed, raffia and bead work, chair caning, painting, and wood work.

We regret that so few visit the class to see what is being done. We wish to thank those who so generously patronized our Christmas sale. The proceeds of it have brought us another loom and materials for use with it.

Red Cross

Junior Red Cross units have been formed in all the rooms at the Center School and are proving stimulating in many ways. The Four H Clubs are flourishing and have called forth very favorable comments from the County leaders.

School Costs

The subject of a cut in teachers' salaries is foremost in many minds. In considering this matter, we should have in mind that the salaries of our teachers never advanced as did the wages of people in other lines of work, and consequently a relative cut therein would be greater than the same reduction in other lines.

Consider the average salary in the towns of corresponding size near us as shown in the following table:

Town	Average Salary—1931
Acushnet	$1211*
Carver	1155
Freetown	1088*
Halifax	1125
Lakeville	1150
Middleboro	1208
Plympton	1133
Rochester	1066
Wareham	1291

*after a reduction made in 1930

State average for towns in our group, $1162—Grades 1-6; $1606 for Junior High.

When one takes into consideration the years and money spent in preparation, and the fact that all teachers are expected to spend yearly a considerable sum for professional improvement, to contribute generously to many civic and charitable causes and to dress rather more expensively than many other occupations demand, it would seem that any lowering of our present wage would be placing the return for their services upon too low a basis.

For the year ending June, 1931 our standing in Group 17, —i. e. towns of less than 5000 not maintaining High Schools, is shown in the following table:

Town	Valuation per pupil	Rank in Group of 125 towns	Exp. per pupil from local taxation	Rank
Carver	$9935	51	$84.07	37
Lakeville	$5551	84	71.31	55
Rochester	$4960	93	60.30	82
State average			90.08

It would appear that in no case is our burden of school costs per pupil from local taxation above a justifiable sum in relation to our capacity

A glance at the statistics furnished by the Research Division of the National Education Association reveals that in 1928-29 the average salary of all teachers was $1364; the average income of all gainfully occupied persons in the United States was $1920; the average salary of salaried people was $2075, and that of Federal employees was $1863. It is thus quite apparent that our teachers did not receive increases equal to that in other lines of work, and the argument that because wages have been reduced in other lines, teachers salaries should be, is scarcely to be taken as valid.

Changes in the Social Studies

During the past thirty years much careful investigation has been carried on concerning the conditions which favor child growth. The result of this study of childhood is a well grounded knowledge concerning learning and teaching. Teaching consists essentially in making it possible for youth to learn effectively. Good teaching provided the mental atmosphere as well as the physical environment in which the learning process goes on, and employs every possible agency to stimulate the active participation of the pupil in learning.

Formerly the school was considered as a place in which the pupil sat with arms folded, eyes front, memorizing text books, putting up a hand if he wished to move. The key-notes of the old school were, "Pay attention!" "Order!" "Learn by heart." Not "What do you think?" but "What does the book say?" Today the active school is replacing the listening school. Instead of restraining and repressing, we seek to guide the pupil's growth in ability to reason. The class room becomes an open forum,—a place for self-expression.

To bring our upper grade work into line with these changes in the educational world, we have completed the introduction of modern, up-to-date texts, which organize the course around issues, problems and unanswered questions, thus confronting the pupil with necessity not only of absorbing facts but of making decisions with facts,—forcing him to think for himself.

The Chadwick Clinic

The response to the offer of the State Department of Public Health to hold a clinic for the detection of glandular tuberculosis was very gratifying, though it is regrettable that some failed to take advantage of this service. Our results were exceptionally good, only an average of about ten per cent being reactors, and only four per cent at most of these showing positive tuberculosis. These children with proper care by parents and their own doctors are practically sure of being cured. Parents should follow up the advice of the clinic; see to it that bad teeth and tonsils are fixed, thus assuring that all the fighting forces of the body are saved to clean up the tuberculosis. Rest is very important. Food must be simple and good.

In closing I wish to express my appreciation of the high professional standard manifested by the teachers and the hearty support given by them and the committee.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR B. WEBBER

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF PLYMOUTH COUNTY AID TO AGRICULTURE, 1931

CARVER

Through local and county-wide meetings of farmers and homemakers, through timely circular letters, through the 4-H clubs organized for the boys and girls of the county, and by means of personal correspondence, individual service to farmers and members of their families, and by assisting in the orderly marketing of agricultural products, the Plymouth County Extension Service, during 1931, co-operated with every town in the county in bringing to its citizens information regarding agriculture and homemaking. Very nearly six thousand families in the county have received assistance, information, or advice from the Extension Service this past year.

Attendance at agricultural meetings increased from 4000 to over 6300. Office calls have doubled and telephoned requests for information increased by 50%. There was a 50% increase in homemakers attending extension groups and the number attending single meetings was doubled. Membership in 4-H clubs has continued its steady growth with an increase of 50% in visits to club members.

The second year of cranberry service has shown the appreciation with which it has been received among Carver bog owners. Circular letters relative to past control and bog management were sent to 118 bog owners and managers. Mr. Short, our cranberry specialist, paid 43 personal visits to give special information or advice on similar questions. At a field meeting of cranberry growers, over 90 men were present. Visits were paid by the county agent on questions pertaining to poultry, fruit growing, and woodlot management. During the rat campaign 57 packages of especially prepared bait were supplied to citizens of the town at cost.

In home projects, Carver has participated particularly in the children's clothing and garment finish program. Many homemakers have also enrolled for letter service in child care and in nutrition, gardening, and canning.

Carver boys and girls were enrolled in the following clubs during 1931: home crafts, lunch box, garden and handicraft. Clubs met regularly under the supervision of a local leader.

In the home crafts club the girls learned to make articles which would add to the attractiveness of the home and articles which would be useful in the home.

In the lunch box club the girls and boys learned to pack school lunches which were appetizing and health giving.

Edward Bolduc won the first annual handicraft contest for 4-H club members in Plymouth County.

Garden club members raised products valued at approximately $400.

Joseph Pina and Mary Thatcher were selected to go on the two-day trip to the state college in Amherst. This trip was awarded for their fine 4-H club work.
